Whitehall, March 20.

Extract of a Letter from the Honourable General Sir William Howe to Lord George Germain, dated New York, February 12, 1777.

THE Diſpoſition of the Troops in this Quarter having undergone little Alteration ſince my laſt Diſpatch, I have only to adviſe your Lordſhip of the Return of a Brigade of Britiſh, and ſome Companies of Grenadiers and Light Infantry, from Rhode Iſland, to ſtrengthen Lord Cornwallis's Corps in Jerſey, in order to enable his Lordſhip, with more Security to the Poſts of Brunſwick and Amboy, to make a Movement when the Weather proves favourable againſt the Enemy ſtill remaining at Morris Town.

Lieutenant-General Clinton being gone to England, Lord Percy has ſucceeded to the Command at Rhode Iſland, and has with him Major-General Preſcot, one Troop of the 17th Light Dragoons, one Brigade of Britiſh, and two of Heſſians.

His Excellency Governor Tryon has offered his Services in the Command of a Corps of Provincials for the enſuing Campaign, and preſuming this Meaſure will be approved by His Majeſty, I ſhall endeavour to place ſuch a Corps under his Command as may be of eſſential Uſe in the Proſecution of the War.

Major-General Robertſon, who will have the Honour to deliver this Diſpatch, can give your Lordſhip the beſt Information reſpecting the preſent State of this Country.

Major General Robertſon, who left New York the 18th of February, and by whom the Letter of which the above is an Extract has been received, gives an Account of ſeveral Advantages gained by Parties compoſed of Britiſh and Heſſian Troops, employed in eſcorting Convoys in the Jerſeys, over large Bodies of the Rebels, by which they had been attacked: Particularly, that a Party of the 42d, which was eſcorting ſome Forage Waggons from Brunſwick, having been attacked by a great Number of the Rebels, Sir William Erſkine marched out with a Detachment to their Relief, and taking a Poſition which placed the Rebels between Two Fires, obliged them to retreat in great Confuſion, leaving between Three and Four Hundred dead upon the Spot.

That a conſiderable Number of the Rebels having appeared on the Heights above the Light-Houſe at Sandy Hook, Major Gordon with 200 Men landed behind them, attacked and defeated them, killing ſeveral and taking 74 Priſoners, which had occaſioned the Rebels to abandon all that Part of Monmouth County.

That the Heſſian Soldiers, that had fought their Way through the Rebels at Trenton, and come to New York, had requeſted General Howe to ſend them back into the Jerſeys, that they might have a Share in any Service that the Seaſon would admit of; with which the General had complied, and they were ſent back accordingly.

That the Rebels on the Weſt Cheſter Side, had collected all the Militia they could draw together from the New England Provinces and the Weſtern Parts of New York, bringing with them a Number of empty Waggons, in Expectation of plundering the Inhabitants of New York Iſland, and had appeared before Fort Independence near King's Bridge, which they ſummoned to ſurrender; but, upon receiving ſome Cannon Shot from the Place, and perceiving the Diſpoſition making by General Knyphauſen, who commands at King's Bridge, for attacking them, they withdrew with their Waggons and diſperſed.

That General Howe propoſed paſſing over from New York into the Jerſeys on the 18th of February, having ordered the Troops which were returned from Rhode Iſland to diſembark at Amboy.

That all His Majeſty's Ships fit for Sea were kept out cruizing, notwithſtanding the Rigor of the Seaſon, and had taken and ſent into New York near Two Hundred Sail of Prizes.

That although when the King's Troops took Poſſeſſion of the City of New York, it was found almoſt without Inhabitants, the Eagerneſs of the People to return under His Majeſty's Government was ſuch, that the Number of Inhabitants on the 17th of February amounted to upwards of 11000. That they kept conſtant Watch, and patroled the City Night and Day, to guard againſt any further Attempts of Rebel Incendiaries, and that their Zeal and Alertneſs had prevented any late material Injury to the City or Shipping from Fire.

That the Congreſs, after declaring General Waſhington Dictator of the American States for Six Months, had withdrawn to Baltimore in Maryland, leaving a Committee at Philadelphia to aſſiſt him with their Advice.

Copy of a Letter from Governor Tryon to Lord George Germain.

MY LORD, New York, Feb. 11, 1777.

THE Succeſs that accompanied my Endeavour to unite the Inhabitants of this City, by an Oath of Allegiance and Fidelity to His Majeſty and His Government has met my warmeſt Wiſhes, 2970 of the Inhabitants having qualified thereto in my Preſence. The Mayor, Recorder, and Alderman Waddle, were employed in adminiſtering the Oath.

I have the Satisfaction to aſſure your Lordſhip, as the Invitation to the People to give this voluntary Teſtimony of their Loyalty to His Majeſty and His Government was made even without a Shadow of Compulſion, it gave me peculiar Satisfaction to ſee the Chearfulneſs with which they attended the Summons. I verily believe there are not One Hundred Citizens who have not availed themſelves of the Opportunity of thus teſtifying their Attachment to Government. The Mayor, ſince I went through the ſeveral Wards, has atteſted 50 more Men, (and is daily adding to the Number) which makes the whole ſworn in the City 3020, which added to thoſe atteſted on Staten Iſland, in the Three Counties in Long Iſland, and in Weſt Cheſter County, (all which amounted to upwards of 2600) makes the Whole amonnt to 5600 Men.

Thus, my Lord, I have uſed my beſt Endeavours to ſecure the Fidelity of the Inhabitants of this Government, within thoſe Diſtricts through which the King's Troops have moved. I have aſſured the General that, ſhould he remove all his Troops from this City, there would not be the leaſt Riſk of a Revolt from the Inhabitants; but, on the contrary, was confident large Numbers would take a Share in the Defence of the Town againſt the Rebels.

The loyal Inhabitants of Queen's County received the 800 Stand of Arms, diſtributed by the General's Permiſſion, with Demonſtrations of Joy, and with a profeſſed Reſolution to uſe them in Defence of the Iſland.

I am anxious that ſome Grace from Government may ſpeedily be extended to this loyal Quarter of the Province.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

W. TRYON
